Very Latest News as of 12/5/11

Latest News – Program Changes...

Program Expanded!

- We are planning on our full schedule of events, with several exciting new additions for you.
- Whether you want to track your car or simply show it, we have days of events to fulfill your wishes.
- Plus there are our famed variety of social events for your evenings.
- Come down and enjoy some time away with great friends and great cars, in a calm, safe and relaxed environment.

Pricing Changed!

- We have modified our costs from last year, with a slight increase for 2012, all done to provide you a better event.
- When you add it all up, you'll see that you can have a wonderful time for a very reasonable cost – the Cavallino Classic is great value for the money.

Weather Unchanged!

- Florida in January is the best place to be, and at the right time of year.
- Palm Beach still retains all its charm for beauty, safety and civility.
- Forget the cold weather, forget your cares – at the 2012 Cavallino Classic.

Latest News – Logistics...

Fly to the Classic!

- If you are sending your cars ahead and are flying yourself, why not avoid commercial flights and fly private.
- Jet Aviation will be pleased to arrange a charter for you and your guests, from anywhere in the USA. Land at Jet Aviation at PBI, minutes away from The Breakers. Call 800-736-8538 to make arrangements.

Bus to the Jet Reception!

- We will have busses traveling to and from The Breakers to take you to the Jet Reception and back. You will be deposited right at the hangar entrance.
- If you arrive in your non-Ferrari after 6:00 pm, there may be no more room to park at Jet Aviation and you will be parked remote. Avoid the disappointment and take the Classic bus.
- If bringing your Ferrari, you park right on the tarmac, of course, starting at 4:00 pm.

Bus to the Yacht Hop!

- We will have busses traveling to and from The Breakers to take you to the Yacht Hop and back. You will be deposited right at the Yacht Hop entrance.
- If you arrive in your non-Ferrari after 6:00 pm, there may be no more room to park at Rybovich and you will be parked remote. Avoid the disappointment and take the Classic bus.
- If bringing your Ferrari, you park right on the esplanade starting at 5:00 pm.

Transport Parking...

• Truck Parking at PBIR...

If a truck is bringing your Ferrari(s) to the track, there will be paddock parking beginning Tuesday morning. Each truck will have its assigned parking spot.

• Truck Parking at The Breakers...

If a truck is bringing your Ferrari(s) to the Classic, these vehicles must park in the designated truck area (Cocoanut Walk) across the street from the entrance to The Breakers. This is on a first come/first serve basis and is reserved for the larger trucks. No trucks are allowed in The Breakers' driveway.

• Truck Parking at Royal Poinciana...

Overflow truck parking for Saturday is available at the Royal Poinciana Plaza from Friday night onward.

• Truck Parking for Mar-a-Lago...

There is no truck parking, or car unloading, at or near Mar-a-Lago. Trucks must remain off-site and the cars must be driven to the event.

Latest News – Events...

Lectures at The Breakers!

- We will have 3 lectures Thursday morning, open to all. Each lecture will be conducted by an authority, with sample Ferraris outdoors to study.
- This is your chance to learn much, and to meet and rub shoulders with the world's Ferrari experts in attendance.
- It is the largest gathering of Ferrari authorities, in one place at one time, and you are invited.
- Watch "Latest News" for Lecture updates, with one special Ferrari on tap.

IAC/PFA Meeting!

- On Thursday afternoon at The Breakers, there is the annual meeting of the IAC/PFA, the International Advisory Council for the Preservation of the Ferrari Automobile.
- Beginning at 1:30 pm, the Council members and visiting guests discuss matters of moment in the Ferrari world. You are invited to attend.

Latest News – Unveilings...

Superamerica 45

- The one-off 599 that made its spectacular appearance at the 2011 Villa d'Este show, the SA 45, will be at the Concorso on Saturday. The owner, and a Classic patron, has agreed to have the Cavallino Classic present it in the middle of the Upper Field, in prime position. Join us for a close up look.

SA Aperta

- Ferrari has started deliveries of their new special bodied 599, the SA Aperta, and we will have several examples on hand at the Classic from private owners. This will be their first public presentation, and many of these have been highly personalized.

458 Italia Grand-Am!

- Ferrari is back at the Daytona 24 Hours in a big way, with four cars reportedly entered for the 2012 edition.
- Ferrari had Michelotto make a special version of the 458 Italia GT, modified to Grand-Am specs. With luck (and if testing goes well), one will be on display at the Jet Reception on Thursday and one at the Concorso d'Eleganza on Saturday.

FF!

- They are out there, but have you seen an FF yet in the flesh? We will have several of this grandest of grand touring Ferraris on hand, courtesy of Ferrari.
- Thinking of buying one? We hear they are offering test rides to the chosen ones. Be on the list.

Latest News – Events...

Classic Car Tour on Friday!

- For those Classic Sports Cars coming to Mar-a-Lago for Sunday, we have a new event to enable you to enjoy your classic to the full.
- On Friday afternoon, you will start with lunch at The Breakers, drive all around Palm Beach and along the coast roads, make some interesting stops and end up at the ShowBoats Yacht Hop at 5:00 pm. It doesn't get any nicer.

The Newer PBIR!

- Moroso is now the Palm Beach International Raceway and the new road course is excellent. The remaining infrastructure is being developed and progress is being made each year.
- It's a great track for sheer driving pleasure.

New Track Groups!

- Responding to your requests, Sports Group Drivers can now sign up for the GT Group as well.
- We have eliminated the Vintage Group for pre-1975 Ferraris, since many of these cars will now race in the Cavallino Classic Competition.

Latest News – Updates...
