Above, always a crowd pleaser, at Amelia as elsewhere, is the infamous 250 GT Sperimentale Berlinetta, s/n 2643 GT, brought by collector Bruce McCaw.

Above, very pretty at Amelia was this 250 Europa GT Pinin Farina Coupe, s/n 0407 GT, in silver with an "orange" interior, which showed much better than it sounds. From collector Lorenzo Zambrano.

Below, a rare find at Amelia Island that had all the Ferrari experts atwitter was this long hidden and wonderfully preserved 212 Inter Coupé Ghia, s/n 0213 EL, from the R. Junco de la Vega Collection.

Above, the very long and elegant 275 GTB/4 Berlinetta Scaglietti, s/n 10447, brought by J. Tucker Morse. These cars are coming to be seen as the last true berlinettas of the old Ferrari school – fast, light, graceful, harmonious.

Above, making the rounds of all the major shows, and now at Amelia, was this 250 GTO Series I Berlinetta Scaglietti, s/n 3445 GT, from Chris and Ann Cox. Here in Swedish colors as when raced by Norinder in 1963 and 1964.
