

MERCATO

FERRARI LEGGENDA E PASSIONE ANOTHER TRIUMPH

MPS Editorial Image

Left: The undisputed star of the 2009 Ferrari Leggenda e Passione Auction conducted by RM and Sotheby's was the 1957 250 Testa Rossa, s/n 0714 TR, which, when all was said and done, was hammer sold, with 10% commission, at 12,402,500 US$ or 9,020,000 Euros. This car has a good, but not great, race history and an unbroken ownership history, which shows how important good provenance is in these distressed times. Quality cars are a store of value and are becoming hard to find.

Hugo Garrisen Image

Above, a shot of the action on the 1957 250 Testa Rossa, s/n 0714 TR, inside the F1 Logistica building at Maranello. History was made.

MPS Editorial Image

Above, on display at Enzo Ferrari's house at Fiorano was the 1956 250 GT Berlinetta TDF, s/n 0563 GT, which brought 3,176,250 US$ or 2,310,000 Euros.

Above, what is it? Whatever you want it to be – the chameleon 330 P4/350 CanAm, s/n 0858. This, and its future possible use, brought about a no sale.

Hugo Garrisen Images

Above, another no sale was the famous Thomson liveried 1973 365 GTB/4 Daytona Competizione GR. IV, s/n 16363, at 2,887,500 US$.